Police: Crack Found in Man's Buttocks

Last Edited: Friday, 01 Feb 2008, 9:17 PM EST

Created: Friday, 01 Feb 2008, 8:59 PM EST

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) — Police searching a downtown home found a man hiding 15 plastic bags of crack cocaine in his buttocks.

Pierre Lynch, 20, of Washington, D.C., was searched after he went to a home on Charles Street Thursday night.

Police had gone to the home after officers saw suspected drug dealing in the area, Sgt. Jim Robison said.

County to pay $250,000 to advertise lack of funds

Lane County will spend up to $250,000 this year publicizing its tight financial picture, in hopes that voters in November will approve higher taxes for public-safety services.

It's an amount for county spending on publicity that has been unparalleled in at least the past 10 years. And it illustrates the seriousness of the effort to persuade voters

Student excited dad got head job

By Brent Briggman

Kansas correspondent

Somewhere Margiea spent her independence when she chose a college two years ago.

With her family still living in Manhattan, her father recently filed as an assistant coach at Oklahoma, the logical choice over Kansas State and Oklahoma. But Margiea wanted to get away from familiarity.

"I wanted to be on my own and get the whole college experience," said Margiea, a sophomore at Kansas and a student manager in the Athletics Department's media relations office. "Now I got the best of both worlds."

After she spent a year and a half away from home, Margiea's parents are coming to her back, plan to work in Lawrence immediately.

Despite Margiea's choice to move away from home two years ago, her father knew she wanted her to take the Kansas job.

"I was excited to call her and tell her, and she was too," said the new Kansas coach. "I think all along she wanted me to come back. She didn't come out and say it, but surely I know this is where she wanted to be."

Though Margiea had his own experience when his team played against Kansas in the Big 8 and Big 12 Conferences, he said his daughter's praise of the University of Kansas helped him make up his mind.

"One of the things that was considered when I was offered this position is Margiea's struggle to hold back her excitement after yesterday's press conference.

"I got really easy and forgot my dad is really a hard coach and I go to school here," Margiea said as she wiped tears from her eyes. "It's just a special time in my life. I don't think anyone will ever understand how cool it is. It's overwhelming."

At Bill's Kansas Athletic Director, noted the new coach's intention to bring as much of his athletic philosophy.

As for his daughter's praise, she said her parents missed her it wouldn't be an issue.

"I don't know how excited she is, but I'm very excited," Mary Jane Margiea said. "She said, 'Mom, I love my life.'"

The image shows the exterior of a building with a large, red, three-dimensional sign that reads "Chewy Balls". The sign is mounted on a light-colored, possibly concrete or stucco, wall. Below the sign, there is a horizontal band of windows. The windows are divided into several panes. The lower part of the image shows a larger set of windows, likely the entrance area, which reflects the surrounding environment, including trees and what appears to be string lights. The overall scene is captured in a photograph with a blue border.
